

Activity Report

UNISEC-local
POC: Zolana João
Email: zolana@hotmail.com
URL: www.ggpen.gov.ao

Overview

The Angolan National Office for Space Affairs (GGPEN) within its competencies to establish protocols of cooperation with technical and scientific institutions of the space domain, held the first introductory course in small satellites.

Date and Venue

Announcement Date: May 2018

Event Date: From the 19th to the 21st of June 2018

Venue: Talatona Convention Centre in Luanda/ Angola at the Angola ICT Forum 2018

Participation

Total number of participants

Category of Participants Students Engineers/Instructors Both
International Participants No Yes

If yes, how many international participants were attended the activity?

There was a special participation of professor Robert Van Zyl, from Cape Peninsula University of Technology of South Africa, who launched the first CubeSat in Africa (Zacube-1).

Sponsors

The Ministry of Telecommunications and Information Technology
Angola ICT Forum 2018

Participants Group Photo

Results and Conclusion

Over 30 higher education Institutions with more than 48 participants from all over the country were trained in the Heptasat. They were able to learn the theory and practical side of the design, integration and testing of the Hepa and were all very Satisfied with the results.

The trainers were all Angolan citizens and some of them have participated in the Hepta training in Japan.
The course concluded with all participants receiving a certificate of participation in the course.